COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

In the Intermediate Court of Marion county, West Virginia.

To H. C. DeShields, trustee, and John W. Poling, plaintiffs, and Henry S.
Lively, trustee, M. D. Boland, Smith Hood, C. L. Slaver, J. A. Hess and B. D. Satterfield, partners as J. A.
Hess and Company, Z. W. Morgan, Fairmont Trust Company, a corporation, Cheeny Hood Supply Company, Johanna Heck, L. R. Hersha Mfg.
Company, a corporation, L. C. Boice and J. W. Boice, partners as Boice Brothers, D. N. Snider, W. R. Loar, Sambel B. Holbert, W. A. Moorehead, and Scott C. Lowe, trustees, defendants:

You and each of you will take notice that in pursuance of a decree of the said Intermediate Court entered on the 4th day of September, 1907, in the chancery cause therein pending, wherein you are the parties complainant and defendant, I have fixed upon

Tuesday, October 22, 1907, as the time and my office in the court house of said Marion county, as the place for beginning the discharge of my duties under said decree of reference, an abstract of which said decree is as follows:

"Upon consideration of which it is adjudged, ordered and decreed that this cause be and the same is referred to Harry Shaw, one of the commissioners in chancery of this court, to take an report an account stating,
"First—The amount and value of all the property and funds conveyed by said M. D. Boland to Henry S. Lively, trustee, and the amount of money paid into the hands of said Henry S.
Lively, trustee, by the purchaser or purchasers of said property conveyed to him by said M. D. Boland and the amount of money in said trustee's hands coming to the creditors of the said M. D. Boland, through and by virtue of said deed of trust.

"Second—The amounts of money properly and lawfully expended by said Henry S. Lively, trustee, in the administration of said trust and whether or not said trustee, Henry S. Lively, should be paid any commissions on the funds passing to him as such trustee and whether or not said trustee should be charged with interest on said funds and also whether or not said Henry S. Lively, trustee, should pay the costs of this suit out of his own estate or out of the trust funds in his hands realized from the estate of the said M. D. Boland.

"Third—All the liens and other debts against the estate and personal property of the said M. D. Boland and their priorities as such.
"Fourth—And such other matters as any parties in interest may require, the same being pertinent, or such other matters of said commissioner shall himself may deem pertinent, whether so required or not.

"But before proceeding to take such account, the said commissioner shall publish the notice to lien-holders and creditors as required by law.

"Said commissioner shall give notice to all the parties to this suit of the time and place of taking said account by publication thereof for six successive weeks in some newspaper published in Marion county, West Virginia, which shall be equivalent to personal service of such notice upon all the parties.

"And what the said commissioner shall do he shall report to the next term of this court; until such time this cause is continued."

At which time and place you may attend and protect your interests.
Given under my hand this 14th day of September, 1907.

HARRY SHAW, Commissioner.
E. B. CARSKADON,
Attorney for Plaintiffs.

pany, M. O. Mooney, W. H. Saava, Marion Plastering Mill Company and Seymour McIntire, trustee, defendants:

that in pursuance of a decree of said Intermediate Court entered on the
chancery cause therein pending, where-
in you are the parties complainant
and defendant, I have fixed upon

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1907,
as the time and my office in the Courthouse of Marion county, as the place for beginning the discharge of my duties under said decree of reference, an abstract of which decree is as follows:

"This day came the plaintiff in the above styled cause by his attorney, as well as the defendants, Art Wall Paper and Paint Company, M. O.
Mooney, W. H. Saava, Marion Plastering Mill Company and Seymour Mc-Intire, trustee, by their attorney, and thereupon the plaintiff moved the court to refer this cause to a commissioner, and all the above parties consenting thereto and no objections being made, and it appearing to the court that this is a proper cause to be referred to a commissioner, it is therefore adjudged, ordered and decreed that this cause be, and the same is hereby referred to Harry Shaw, one of the Commissioners in Chancery of this court, who shall do and perform the following matters and things:

"1. He shall take, and settle the accounts of Jas. A. Meredith, special receiver of the Art Wall Paper and Paint Company, heretofore appointed in this cause, showing the property which came into his hands, his disposition thereof, his receipts and disbursements, and the amount of funds remaining in his hands.

"2. He shall ascertain and report the total assets of the said Art Wall Paper and Paint Company, its debts and to whom owing and when payable and the lien debts and their priorities and to whom owing and when payable.

the names of the stockholders of said Art Wall Paper and Paint Company and the number of shares held by them.

"4. He shall also report any other matters and things which may be required by any party in interest, the same being pertinent, or such other matters as the said commissioner shall deem pertinent, whether requested or not.

"But before proceeding to take said account the said commissioner is hereby directed to see that the Clerk of the Intermediate Court of this county shall publish the notice to creditors of said Art Wall Paper and Paint Company as required by Chapter 86, Section 8, of the Code of West Virginia, and the said commissioner shall give notice to all parties to this suit of the time and place of the taking of said account by publication thereof for six successive weeks in the Fairmont West Virginian, a newspaper published and of general circulation in this county, or by personal service of such notice on the parties or their counsel.

"And what the said commissioner shall do under this decree he shall report to the next term of this court."

At which time and place you are required to attend and protect your interests.

Given under my hand this 14th day
of September, 1907.

HARRY SHAW,
Commissioner.

JAMES A. MEREDITH,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

NOTICE TO LIEN HOLDERS.

To all persons holding liens by judgment or otherwise, on the real estate, or any part thereof, of M. D.
Boland:

In pursuance of a decree of the Intermediate Court of Marion county, West Virginia, made in a cause therein pending, to subject the real estate of the said M. D. Boland to the satisfaction of the liens thereon, you are hereby required to present all claims held by you and each of you against the said M. D. Boland which are liens on his real estate, or any part of it, for adjudication to me, at my office in the Court-house of said Marion county, on or before the 22d day of October, 1907.

Given under my hand this 14th day
of September, 1907.

HARRY SHAW,
Commissioner.

IN THE BEST OF HUMOR

Knicker—Wall street is a terrible place.

Pope—Yes, but still it is a consolation to watch all that take go in the waste basket, just like poems.—Judge.

Cook—Dinks suffers from hay fever, doesn't he?

Hook—I should say he does. He can't even pass a grass widow without sneezing.—Harper's Weekly.

Indignant Passenger—"Call that a sandwich? I never tasted anything like it before."

Walter—"You've ate yer ticket; there's yer sandwich."—The Tatler.

I've got to begin to economize on this automobile business. My machine is costing me altogether too much money.

"Too much wear and tear."
"No. Fines."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

He—They say apple pie without cheese is like a kiss without a squeeze.
Do you believe it?

She—I am not prepared to judge.
I've never had a kiss without a squeeze.—Philippine Gossip.

Little Helen—Ma, the minister told me to-day that God gave me to you.

Mother—Well, he did, my dear.

Helen—Then somebody isn't telling the truth. I heard auntie tell Mrs.
Watson that the count gave me to you.

—Detroit Free Press.

"I understand that you have relics of the war for sale," said the Southern tourist to the little towhead.

"We did have," replied the boy, "but they done bought us out, and the swords had buried last week won't get raised 'fore summer."—Atlanta Constitution.

"What we want," said the patriot-citizen, "is a system that will compel men to vote honestly."

"That's right," answered Mr. Ward Heeler; "there's too many voters getting into the way of taking your money and then voting as they please."— Washington Star.

"You were very lenient with that conductor," said the first passenger.

"Oh!" replied the other, "we're all wable to make mistakes."

Ah! perhaps you were a conductor yourself once."

"No, sir; I'm a weather forecaster." —Catholic Standard and Times.

Griff—You look prosperous, old man.

Grafton—Yes; I suppose you read about Nurich's ambition to be a senator?

Griff—Well, yes, I see by the papers that he says he's in the hands of his friends—

Grafton—That's it. I'm one of his friends.—Philadelphia Press.
